1. (Confidential - JMM) George Winnett, State Congressional Liaison, called to say he had gotten a congressional inquiry about allegations regarding Kim Philby's relations with CIA. I told Winnett that if he would send the inquiry to us we would try to handle it.
2. (Unclassified - GLC) Jack Leahy, State Department Congressional Liaison Office, called and asked if any members of the Foreign Relations Committee have been present at our briefings of the Senate CIA Subcommittees on Laos. Leahy is aware that Senators Fulbright, Mansfield and Hickenlooper (now Aiken) normally attend these meetings as invitees. He is raising this question as a result of Senator Fulbright's statement at Secretary Rogers briefing of the Symington Subcommittee that this was the first he knew of the extent of U.S. involvement in Laos. (See our Memo to the Director). On the Director's instructions, Leahy was advised that this was a matter which Mr. Helms would discuss personally with Secretary Rogers. 25X1

(Unclassified - GLC) Checked with Al Westphal, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, on the status of amendments to the Foreign Service Retirement Act to provide the benefits of the Daniels/McGee bill to Foreign Service retirees. He did indicate, however, that there is a good possibility that the Daniels/McGee amendments will be included in legislation which will also make other amendments to the Foreign Service Retirement Act.

4. (Confidential - GLC) Jay Sourwine, on the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called regarding a report which the Subcommittee has received from [redacted] whom they regard as a good source. According to this source, Juan Bosch and Hector Aristi visited Kim Il Sung in North Korea on 8 October and discussed with him the withdrawal of U.S. troops from North Vietnam, Laos, and the U.S base at Guantanamo Bay.
